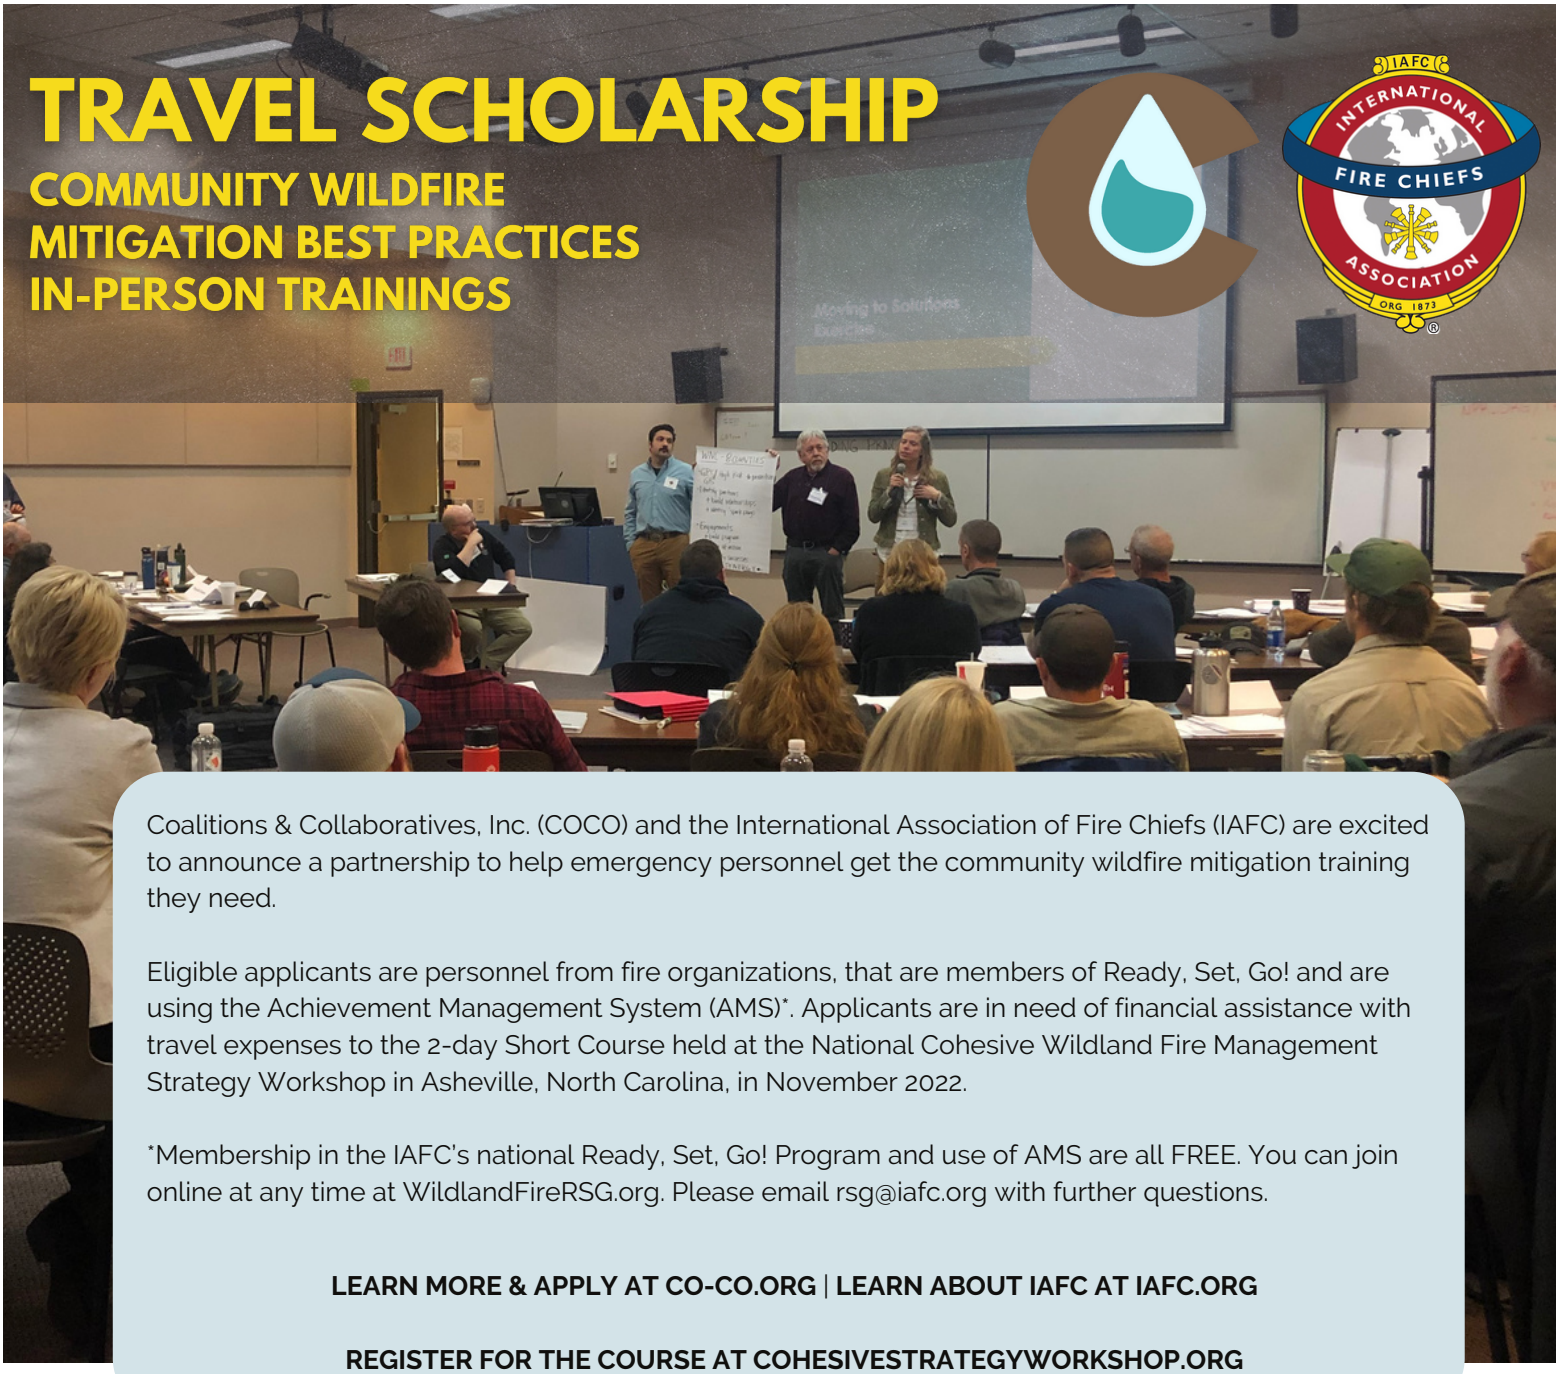
TRAVEL SCHOLARSHIP

COMMUNITY WILDFIRE MITIGATION BEST PRACTICES IN-PERSON TRAININGS



Coalitions & Collaboratives, Inc. (COCO) and the International Association of Fire Chiefs (IAFC) are excited to announce a partnership to help emergency personnel get the community wildfire mitigation training they need.

Eligible applicants are personnel from fire organizations, that are members of Ready, Set, Go! and are using the Achievement Management System (AMS)*. Applicants are in need of financial assistance with travel expenses to the 2-day Short Course held at the National Cohesive Wildland Fire Management Strategy Workshop in Asheville, North Carolina, in November 2022.

*Membership in the IAFC's national Ready, Set, Go! Program and use of AMS are all FREE. You can join online at any time at WildlandFireRSG.org. Please email rsg@iafc.org with further questions.

LEARN MORE & APPLY AT CO-CO.ORG | LEARN ABOUT IAFC AT IAFC.ORG

REGISTER FOR THE COURSE AT COHESIVESTRATEGYWORKSHOP.ORG

Covers travel to conference: airfare and/or mileage

Up to 10 travel scholarships available

No matching funds required, however scholarship does not cover conference registration

Wendie Warner | wendie@cusp.ws | 719-960-6866

https://co-co.org/programs/community-wildfire-mitigation-best-practices-training/

Scholarships are provided through International Association of Fire Chiefs and Coalitions & Collaboratives, Inc.